

How we support you with Eduqas GCSE English Language and Literature

A subscription to Educake English includes KS3 and GCSE, and allows you to choose the exam board you need, with content and question styles tailored to that specification.

Our popular standalone reading tests help students develop the comprehension and analytical skills they need for the Language papers. We've even included exam-style questions:

Q1) List FIVE feelings that Miss Kenton reveals in this the first paragraph ("But that doesn't mean to say..." to "and be grateful").

One student wrote an answer to this question:

- She sometimes feels extremely unhappy about her life.
- She thinks she has made a terrible mistake.
- She sometimes gets really angry about small things.
- She wishes she could spend more time thinking about a different life.
- She feels that she has been luckier than some people.

How many marks would they receive? A maximum of 5 marks is possible.
